

A MANUAL OF INTEGRATED PEST MANAGEMENT FOR URBAN LANDSCAPES IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Submitted to
Pesticide Management Branch
B.C. Ministry of Environment, Lands and Parks

by
Mario Lanthier
Linda Edwards, P. Ag.
Integrated Crop Management Inc.

Box 164
Okanagan Centre, B.C.
V0H 1P0

December 20, 1993

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Dr. Linda Gilkeson, IPM Coordinator (B.C. Ministry of Environment, Lands and Parks) supervised the realisation of this manual and offered guidance on contents.

Persons contributing technical advice and reviewing the manuscript:

- Michelle Gorman, IPM Coordinator, City of Victoria*
- Martin Harcourt, Mainland Landscaping and Gardening Ltd., Vancouver*
- Mac McNair, Arbour-Care Tree Service, Vancouver*
- Michael Nihls, Superintendent of Parks Operations, City of Coquitlam*
- Bill Stephen, IPM Coordinator, Board of Parks and Recreation, Vancouver.*

Persons contributing technical advice:

- Alan Duckworth, Landscape Designer, Kelowna*
- Don Grenier, Goldleaf Landscape Management Services, Vancouver*
- Bill Herbst, Parks and Recreation Department, City of Port Coquitlam*
- Tim Rhay, Turf and Grounds Supervisor, City of Eugene (Oregon)*
- Bruce Tanner, Chief Horticulturist, Crystal Garden, Victoria.*

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter 1:	What is Integrated Pest Management ?
Chapter 2:	Using Integrated Pest Management in Urban Landscapes
Chapter 3:	Trees of Parks and Boulevards: The Application of Integrated Pest Management
Chapter 4:	Shrubs, Flower Beds and Display Gardens: The Application of Integrated Pest Management
Chapter 5:	Lawns and Turf: The Application of Integrated Pest Management
Chapter 6:	Vegetation Management for Special Sites: The Application of Integrated Pest Management
Chapter 7:	Interior Plantscapes: The Application of Integrated Pest Management
Chapter 8:	Developing an Integrated Pest Management Program For New Clients
Chapter 9:	Appendices Plants for special sites, IPM programs, reading materials